Dear BCC Members,

Last week, we celebrated Shavuot with cheesecake and Torah study. Major Jewish holidays are on pause—June 2023 is officially here. However, we can look forward to several happenings at B'er Chayim before summer reaches its full stride.

On this first day of the month (June 1), Adult Hebrew replaces Adult Education. Students voted to continue their hard work in understanding Biblical Hebrew before summer's break. The class has made great progress, as we are nearly halfway through "The First Hebrew Primer"—no minor feat.

On Sunday, June 4 at 10:30 am, BCC's Book Club meets for a discussion of David L. Bernstein's "Woke Antisemitism." Antisemitism has sprouted in unexpected places with concerning virulence, and more knowledge is better than less regarding this millennia-old prejudice.

Michael Manto is set to lead services on Friday night, June 9. Thank you, Michael, for being willing and able. You always get good reviews. The following day, at Shabbat's end, "Keeping Up with the Steins," is the top contender for the next selection in BCC's film series. Check your email for an Evite invitation for more information. Also, the Eastview Cemetery Committee is planning a monument cleaning get-together on a Sunday this month, TBD.

After the busy June, enjoy the summer and rest. Two and a half short months later, Rosh Hashanah arrives with a new year once again beginning.

All my best, and Kol Tuv,

Rabbi Richard Bessman

Congrats!!!

Leah Boggs, daughter of Steve and Stefanie Boggs, granddaughter of Larry and Dottie Hohing, graduated from Mountain Ridge High School on Saturday, May 20, 2023.

She is the recipient of the WCBC Student Salute Scholarship and eleven other awards including the Avery Bridges Kindness award, given on May 16, 2023.

She was cheerleader, Co-drum major of the marching band, Concert Mistress of the orchestra, member of the All-County Orchestra, Band and chorus, and class officer.

She graduates with a 4.0 plus and was chosen to give the farewell address at graduation. Her plans are to attend Frostburg State University and major in music education.

She feels that her Bat Mitzvah added was instrumental in her success. Her family is very proud of her, and the best is yet to come.
